

WOLSTON GARDEN CLUB 2018

DATE	TITLE	SPEAKER	ADDITIONAL INFO
15 February	The Garden a Natural History Paradise	Paul Williams – Head Gardener at Bourton House Gardens for 19 Years and at Wychford Pottery Email: pwhorticulture@live.co.uk	Paul has written various books on horticulture.
15 March	Garden History Through Warwickshire Gardens	Dr Christine Hodgetts Email: chris@chodgetts.co.uk	Christine is a Garden Historian and Chairperson of Warwickshire Gardens Trust
19 April	Japanese Maples	Neil and Cath Kenney Larchfield Trees www.larchfieldtrees.co.uk	Neil and Cath live in Wolston and specialise in growing Japanese Maples. They may bring some plants, books and cards to sell
17 May	The Woodland Trust - an introduction to its work and aims	Liz Taylor elizabeth.taylor87@tesco.net
28 June	Afternoon Trip to "Kathy Brown's Garden" near Bedford	www.kathybrownsgarden.com	Members and guests
July	Day Trip to Waterperry Gardens near Oxford	www.waterperrygardens.co.uk	Members, guests and subsequently to general booking
20 September	Floral Button holes Talk and Demo	Sue Ainley of Garden Gate (who can forget her hand tied bouquet!) sue@gardengaterugby.co.uk	Sue suggests members bring their own flowers and she will provide ribbons
18 October	Two-part talk 1. Give nature a home, making your garden as nature friendly as possible. 2. A bird song trip around various eco-systems	Pete Worthy of the RSPB pete@cpworthy.plus.com
15 November	Tales of a Dairy Farmer's Wife from Somerby. They have 150 pedigree Ayrshire milking cows.	Jane.barnes@tiscali.co.uk	Plenty of lively anecdotes and humorous stories from a farm producing milk for Stilton cheese. Jane will be bringing cheeses for sale.